

DEAR LITTLE ONES and ONES ONCE LITTLE by E.ela Mai

May your day be bright and beautiful.
May you be more brilliant, bountiful and Better, Ever indubitably, than the day before.

Praying you'll flourish in Brilliance, bravery and blessedness.
That you be Resilient, resourceful and reliable.

For a healthy dose of Inspiration, innovation and insight.
That you abound in Graciousness, goodness and generosity.
That you hold onto being Happy (contented), humble and helpful.
That in all things, you are Thoughtful, trustworthy and tenacious.

May you be bright and beautiful and blessed in your heart, mind and soul.
And with all boldness, never make the mistake of staying bleak, bitter or bothered.

Because things will be bright most of the time if we search for the light in our surroundings, learn to grow stronger from our struggles and dwell always in the belief that God is real and truly wants only the best for us.

We are the brightest example of what big things we can achieve in this world for the good of us all if we stand together for the brightness in brotherhood and brightly forge ahead with compassion for all, in a bright-fully beautiful way.
