“The Indie-Mom of Comedy”

INNOVATIVE, INDEPENDENT with INDIVIDUALITY are the words that best describe MESHELLE “The Indie-Mom of Comedy”. With a style that makes you stop and in your tracks and say “she looks like the Girlfriend, not the WIFE” and certainly not anyone’s “MOM”. MESHELLE is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and a 2010-2012 Open Society Institute Community Fellow. MESHELLE’s New One Woman Show, “Diary of A M.I.L.F.” (Mom I’d Love to FOLLOW) Directed by Rain Pryor; debuted December 17, 2011 to a sold-out audience at the Baltimore Theatre Project and has received multiple awards; WINNER, Favorite Overall Theatrical Experience (Atlanta Black Theatre Festival, 2012); WINNER Audience Choice Award (DC Black Theatre Festival, 2013). COMMUNITY IMPACT

GOALDIGGERS
THE SANKOFA PROJECT

OUR MISSION

The mission of Goaldiggers the Sankofa Project: is to connect inner-city teen girls of African descent to education and gain college access, by introducing them to the study of their ancestry and ethnic identity reinforcing a positive self-concept. To culminate the two-year experience, participants will travel to Ghana, West Africa for a cultural immersion voyage.

OUR GOAL

The goal: is for each girl to become a college educated young woman with a positive self-concept and an assured ethnic identity, poised to serve her family, peers and community.
