FINE ARTIST

I have studied and worked with art all my life. Starting with private lessons as child, onto Maryland Institute College of Art in Baltimore where I graduated magna cum laude, and then into the art work world.

I've worked as a silk-screener of t-shirts and posters, illustrator for a medical school and private hospital, art teacher and art camp director, and designer of print publications and outdoor exhibits.

Over the past few years I have devoted more time to my own art and less to graphic design. I've returned to oil painting, particularly plein air, figure sketching and using my photographs in collages to create dramatic and unique images.

FINE ART

I have exhibited paintings, drawings and digital collages at Maryland Federation of Art Gallery, 49 West, Anne Arundel Arts Council and other local galleries.

FREE-LANCE GRAPHIC DESIGN

I contracted independently with area businesses including: National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, Peter Tasi Design, Annapolis Department of Transportation, Annapolis Pulmonary Specialists, Women Ob-Gyn, Rob Levit and Southeast Watershed Forum.

I've created logos, identity packages, brochures, magazines, posters, calendars, advertisements, annual reports, newsletters, magazines, walking tour signage and just about anything that is printed.
