

APRIL M. RIMPO RESUME

Education

April M. Rimpo first took private art lessons from 1976 through 1978 focused on graphite and colored pencil drawing plus oil on canvas. She continued her studies in oil focusing on composition and later took five years of advanced watercolor. To continue advancing her skills, Rimpo has taken over 1200 hours of workshops from award winning watercolor and mixed media artists.

Style

April works with watermedia, primarily watercolor or fluid acrylic on 140lb watercolor paper. Conveying emotion and story are her priority in her work. She uses color and texture to set the mood and energy she feels best communicates the emotion of the scene. You will find landscapes, urban scenes, or paintings of people doing everyday activities. April loves learning about other cultures and places, so she strives to show bits of life that grabbed her attention and made her feel she had to share their story through her expressionistic art.

Family

April and her husband Chas married in 1983 and reside in Dayton, Maryland. They have one son.
