Wendy Roberts is an interdisciplinary fiber artist that weaves graphic images reflective of the interaction of color and texture inspired by the natural world.

Currently, Wendy is creating the Domus Interrupted Series. Exploring the interactive expression through vintage kitchen utensils with weaving and embroidery techniques.

With a background in graphic design, Wendy focuses her fiber art on the relationship of texture, pattern, color and design. She has a BFA from Maryland Institute College of Art in Baltimore, MD and currently maintains a fiber studio in nearby Bel Air, Maryland. Wendy has served on the board of the Textile Society of America as the Director of Communications.
