RORY HOLCOMB

SUMMARY

Rory Holcomb is a Baltimore based artist recently graduated from MICA. They create paintings and screen prints depicting daily life and connections. They are largely inspired by old horror movies, and practical effects in movies. Their artwork was shown in their solo show, Vivisepultura, at Night Owl Gallery in October 2025, and their work has been featured in several other galleries, such as Monster Museum, at the Gateway Galleries in October 2024, and the Slayed exhibition at the Club Car in October 2024.
