

Mark Cameron

Professional Experience

Watershed Planner, Baltimore City Department of Public Works, 2013-present

Growing Green Initiative, Baltimore City Department of Planning, 2012-2013

Executive Director, Neighborhood Design Center (Baltimore, MD), 2000-2012

Associate Professor, Morgan State University (Baltimore, MD), 1991-2000

Education

Master

University of Pennsylvania, Master's in Architecture and Landscape Architecture, 1989-1991

University of Cincinnati, Bachelor's in Architecture, 1980-1986

Exhibitions

"Maryland Art Place Crit III", Zeke's Coffee, 2024

"Mill Centre Group Show", Fox Building Gallery, 2024

"No Refunds" (solo show), Maryland Institute College of Art, 2024

"Frosh Week", XOXO Gallery, 2024

"Night Scape", Night Owl Gallery, 2025

"Look Busy" (three-person show), Fox Building Gallery, 2025

"EcoArt Exhibit", Chesapeake Art Center, Fall 2025

"Transformed", Maryland Federation of Art (Annapolis), Fall 2025

"Teen, Tiny, BOLD", Rountree Gallery (Platteville, WI), Winter 2025

Bakerartist.org/portfolios/mark-cameron

Instagram = @markcameron351