

SIM IRETI

PHOTOGRAPHER | WRITER

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS

McDaniel College

2015-2019

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

University of Maryland, Baltimore
2020-2022

MY SKILLS

- Photography
- Graphic Design
- Writing
- Research
- Marketing

ABOUT ME

Self-taught digital and 35mm film photographer whose work explores connection and comfort. I use my practice as a means of self-regulation and a practice in gratitude for the sight they almost lost.

EXHIBITIONS

- 2026. The Everyday: Scenes in Baltimore (Group exhibition), Charm City Cultural Cultivation
- 2026. Collective: a Black queer gallery show (Group exhibition), miXt food hall
- 2025. Delicate Realms: A Return to Self, (Group exhibition), BLifted Studios

EXPERIENCES:

FREELANCE WRITER

Baltimore Beat | 2024 - Present

- Engaged performing artists in thoughtful conversations, capturing the spirit and intentions behind their work.
- Crafted reviews that blended critical reflection with narrative, offering audiences deeper insight into live performance.
- Contributed writing that celebrated artistic voices while documenting the vibrancy of contemporary performance.

EMERGING ARTIST

OARA | June 2024 - October 2024

- Selected as a fellowship artist in an emerging artist program, receiving mentorship and professional development to deepen creative practice.
- Collaborated with a diverse cohort of artists, exchanging ideas and refining work through workshops, critiques, and shared exploration.
- Created and presented new work in a culminating group show, contributing original perspectives while engaging audiences in contemporary conversations.

bakerartist.org/portfolios/sezamakes

@sezamedia

samixed.media@gmail.com