CV

Kenneth Yee (b. 1976, New York) is a painter and graphic designer. He received his Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Fine Arts from the Maryland Institute College of Art in 2010. Kenneth was featured on NBC's The Today Show as a teaching artist for his work with the non-profit organization, Art For Progress. He's participated in the Artists Talk series at the Asian American Art Centre in New York City, was a 2011 Bethesda Painting Awards Semi-Finalist, and his work has been published in children's books. His paintings have been exhibited throughout the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions and can be found in a number of private collections. He currently lives in Baltimore with his wife, daughter, and son.
