

Rick Shelley
321 Wyman Park Drive
Baltimore, MD 21211
www.rickmshelley.com

Regional Commissions:

- 1) Enoch Pratt Central Library, Cathedral Street, Baltimore, MD.
Ceramic relief of the original 1880's Enoch Pratt Library façade. Permanent installation. Commissioned by the Friends of Enoch Pratt Free Library, Inc.
- 2) Walters Art Museum, Baltimore, MD
Mosaic map of the ancient and medieval world. Permanent installation on the 2nd floor lobby of the Center Street building.
- 3) Baltimore Museum of Art, Baltimore, MD
Mosaic table top used as an educational tool demonstrating border designs in conjunction with "Antioch, the Lost Ancient City" exhibition.
- 4) Basilica of the Assumption, Cathedral Street, Baltimore, MD.
Papal shield for the jubilee year. (polychromed terra-cotta). Installed over the central doorway.
- 5) St. Mark's Lutheran Church, 1900 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, MD.
Mosaic image of the Winged Lion of St. Mark, installed in the narthex.
Mosaic processional cross.
- 6) Westchester Elementary School, Baltimore, MD
Three-dimensional glass mosaic mural for the central hallway.

Education: Bachelor of Science in Fine Arts
Towson State University, 1977

- 1980: Co-founder of Baltimore Clayworks, Baltimore, MD.
- 1980-1996: Instructor of tile making, relief sculpture & mold making at Clayworks.
- 1983 to 2001: Instructor of pottery and sculpture
The Waxter Center for Senior Citizens, Baltimore, MD.
- 1993 to present: Instructor of mosaics and stained glass at Rick Shelley's Studio
- 1997 to 2005: Consultant & designer for Gibbons of Baltimore, Church Interiors.
- 2005 to present: Instructor of mosaics at the American Visionary Art Museum.

In addition, works sold through various galleries, exhibitions, and museum shops including:

American Craft Council, Winter Market, Baltimore, MD.
Gomez Gallery, Baltimore, MD.
Pendragon Gallery, Annapolis, MD
Paper, Rock, Scissors Gallery, Baltimore, MD.
American Visionary Art Museum, Baltimore, MD.
Artscape, Baltimore, MD.
The Baltimore Museum of Art Shop

In 2007, a retrospective "Serenissima, The Worlds of Rick Shelley" was exhibited at the Creative Alliance in Baltimore.