

MARNEE KEITH

4102620393

mkeith@fastmail.com

EDUCATION

Baltimore City Community College Fashion: Introduction to sewing 2022
Baltimore County Community College: Catonsville; Sign Language 1 2019
Baltimore Illustration Academy: Illustration and Design 2018
Baltimore Pottery Guild: Ceramics classes 2017 and 2025
George Mason University Arts Integration Through Experience 2011
Johns Hopkins University: Materials in Teaching Reading , 2009
Maryland Institute College of Art Professional develop for Art Educators
2007-2008
Professional Development Series: Clay in the Classroom. Coordinated by the 21st Century Schools office and implemented by Amanda Pellarin 3 cohorts attended 2023-2024

Masters of Education, Towson University 2001

Bachelor of Science, Towson State University 1992

TEACHING LICENSES

Advanced Professional Certification- Kindergarten through Fifth

Advanced Professional Certification Art- N through Twelfth Grade

EMPLOYMENT

Atelierista , 2022-Current

Francis Scott Key Elementary/Middle School

- Develop Curriculum for Pre Kindergarten through 8th Grades
- Currently supervise a cohort of interns from Maryland Institute College of Art
February-April 2024
- Supervise student teacher from Maryland Institute College of Art February-April 2023
- Supervise a tile mural created by the staff of Francis Scott Key E/M School as a gift to the students
- Create a school wide arts program for parents and stakeholders to view their students artwork
- Mentor several first and second year visual art teachers under the auspice of the Visual and Performing Arts office and our CLN

Art Teacher, 2013-2022

Liberty Elementary School

- Incorporate Maryland State Standards and existing Baltimore City Visual Arts curriculum with a diverse cross-section of art projects to create a diverse art program with an emphasis on cross curricular connections
- Implement a literature based art program for Prekindergarten through fifth grades
- Mentor several first and second year visual art teachers under the auspice of the Visual and Performing Arts office and our CLN
- Supervise student teacher from Towson University February-April 2014

Atelierista, 2009-2013

City Neighbors Hamilton Charter School

- Coordinated arts integration curriculum for grades K-6
- Liaison for Arts Everyday educational foundation for instruction and professional development in arts integration
- Participated in an Arts Study Abroad in Florence Italy program in conjunction with the MSTA and George Mason University
- Obtained grants based funding for artists-in-residence programs

Art Teacher, 2006-2009

James Mosher Elementary School, Baltimore, Maryland

- Developed and instruct a cross-curricular art program for grades Pre-kindergarten through Fifth grade
- Completed annual application and award of a grant from the Children's Bookstore Educational Foundation providing each child in the school a book of their own
- Created Worldview an Arts Program with a focus on tolerance and created a blog for Worldview: <http://worldviewprojectindia.blogspot.com>
- Co-coordinator of the culminating gala for Worldview at the Walters Art Museum
- Coordinated an art exhibit and sale held at Common Ground Coffee House as part of the philanthropic activities for Worldview

Art Teacher, 1999-2005

Lafayette Elementary School, Baltimore Maryland

- Developed and implemented a cross-curricular art program for grades Kindergarten through Fifth

- Coordinated a school wide cultural program where classes adopted a particular country to learn about, created art projects and presented a skit at a winter performance
- Organized an exhibition of student art at the Common Ground Coffee House.
- Coordinated grants for the school to receive books from the Children's Bookstore Foundation.

Art Teacher, 1999-2000

Matthew A. Henson and Lafayette Elementary Schools, Baltimore, Maryland

- Assisted teaching Fifth grade language-arts block
- Developed and carried out a cross-curricular art program for grades Kindergarten through Fifth
- Developed and taught and curriculum for an after-school art club

Art Teacher, 1992-1994 and 1997-1999

Harlem Park Elementary School Baltimore, Maryland

- Developed and put into practice a cross-curricular art program for grades Pre-kindergarten through Fifth
- Developed an arts integrated project about rainforests that culminated in a trip to Goddard Spaceflight center to participate in the J.A.S.O.N project from Belize

GRANTS and AWARDS

Nominated for Baltimore City Schools Teacher of the Year 2015 and 2024
 Elementary Master Teacher of the Year for Baltimore City Schools 2010
 Maryland Arts Education Association
 Recipient of a 2008 ING Unsung Heroes Award for Worldview,
 Nominated for Disney's American Teacher Awards 2002

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Girl Scouts of America, September 2010-2015

Started and directed a group Daisy-Junior years.

Leadership Educators in the Arts Disciplines (L.E.A.D) Teacher, 2008-2009

Baltimore City Public Schools, Baltimore, Maryland

Participation in a cadre of arts teachers charged with developing professional development, disseminating pedagogical, theoretical and practical information to the of the arts staff for BCPS.

Initiated and facilitated a school system wide quilt project with the theme “City Schools and Baltimore City Sewn Together.” This project produced an 8’x10’ quilt to be hung at City Schools’ Pinderhughes Administration Building.

Professional Development Presenter 2005-present

Baltimore City Public Schools, Baltimore, Maryland

Presented seminars on lesson plan development and implementation. Classes included grant seeking and writing and impressionism for all grade levels and mask making across the curriculum

Art Programming Coordinator, Summers 2000-2010

Kaleidoscope Summer Arts Camp, Catonsville, Maryland

Developed and implemented a thematic camp arts program for third grade through high school for both visual and performing arts

Intern, 2008-2009

Office of Fine and Performing Arts, Baltimore City Public Schools
Administration

Coordinated development of professional development including acquiring guest speakers, coordinating venues, and created agendas

Assisted in developing communication cycle for city wide arts exhibition (FYI: For Your Inspiration) at the Baltimore Museum of Art

Acted as a liaison for interdepartmental and community based arts projects

Co-founder of Worldview, 2008-2011

Worldview is an arts integration program that teaches at risk students ethnic traditions and teaches tolerance by engaging in a yearlong study of a particular county. A year end art exhibit and performances were held ante Walters Art Museum in Baltimore City

Project Coordinator March 2009

Baltimore City Public Schools – 65 schools participated

System wide quilt for Youth Art Month schools entitled “City Schools and Baltimore City Sewn Together” project

Art Content Seminar Leader, November 2006- May 2007

Maryland Practitioner Teacher Program, Baltimore, Maryland

Wrote curriculum and taught a class organized to instruct new teachers in lesson plan development and execution.

Solo Art Show: November 2004 Dougherty's Bar, Baltimore, MD Watercolor and tapestries