

Julia Glatfelter
484-202-3651. Baltimore, MD.
glatfelterjulia@gmail.com, www.juliaglatfelter.com

Education / Dual Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Art Education K-8 (with Certification) and Studio Art from Gordon College in Wenham, MA; Semester at MASS Art and Boston University

Skills / Project Management, Collaboration, Curriculum Development, Teaching, Classroom Management, Lesson Planning, Microsoft Office Proficiency, Introductory Spanish

Employment

Communications Dir and Gallery Kids Coor, Gallery Church, Baltimore MD, June 2019 - Present

Create and introduce new communication systems between leadership and congregation, prepare Sunday school curriculum materials, facilitate training for volunteer teachers, coordinate church volunteer schedules for childcare, initiate offerings and events in Highlandtown community including The Virtual Learning Space initiative during virtual school learning

Art with a Heart, Placement at: Commodore John Rodgers School, Baltimore MD, Jan - March 2020

Co-taught PK - 4th Grade visual art lessons, planned and prepared materials, collaborated with classroom teachers, engaged each student, assessed student work, documented lessons

Partnership Engagement Specialist, World Relief, Baltimore MD, January 2018 - July 2019

Planned, managed and attended corporate fundraising events, supported development team in coordinating international trips and branding initiatives for donors and executive staff travel

Art Teacher, United South End Settlements, Boston MA, February 2017 - September 2017

Developed multimedia arts curriculum for class of 12 students (ages 6-12), taught all lessons, incorporated interdisciplinary content, oversaw students' recess, lunch and enrichment hours

Administrative Assistant and Student Archivist, Gordon College Fine Arts Dept, Wenham MA, Fall 2016

Participated in staff meetings, assisted department chair, communicated with students as class tutor, entered departmental data, assisted in archiving campus collections

Student Teacher (Visual Art K-5) at the Paul Revere School, Revere MA, August 2016 - May 2017

Observed, assisted and taught lessons over the course of the school year to all students, created interdisciplinary units, assessed student artwork, collaborated with teachers, differentiated all lessons

Visual Art Experiences

Artist in Resident, Casa Lu, Mexico City, November - December 2019

Attended a 6-week residency among 3 other international artists, created a complete body of work in shared studio space, exhibited in group show

Co-Director of The Children's Gallery, Highlandtown, Baltimore MD, June 2019 and August 2020

Created and developed a bilingual arts program for 20 children in Highlandtown, directed a full week program for children ages 4 - 10 in 2019, managed an at-home camp in 2020, developed multidisciplinary and multicultural curriculum for both programs

Clay Studio Assistant Cynthia Curtis Clay Studio, Rockport MA, 2016

Produced tableware, loaded and unloaded kilns, cleaned studio, recycled clay

Graphic Designer for UpMarket Concepts, Wenham MA, 2016

Designed logo and business cards, researched and ordered necessary materials for products

Co-Facilitator for public art projects and ELA classes in Colombo, Sri Lanka, June 2015 - July 2015

Created and taught ELA and Art classes at a children's center, initiated and executed public mural projects

Graphic Design Director's Assistant Intern at Return Design, Wenham MA, 2015

Branded tools for non-profit organizations, communicated with clients, collaborated with co-designers