Additional Information

1) I am the President of the Board of AHI, an artists' co-op in East Baltimore. I have been a member of AHI since 2003. The co-op is located in the Washington Hill neighborhood of East Baltimore, and includes 24 artists of various disciplines. We have our own gallery & frequently reach out to community schools to provide space for artistic expression and development.

2) I have been a member of Creative Alliance since the start of this community based arts organization. I have volunteered for several programs at Creative Alliance including exhibition design, youth workshops, and community based events. I currently coordinate the Saturday morning figure drawing workshop.

3) I maintain my own studio practice at AHI, exhibit yearly in our artist run gallery as well as Creative Alliance, Md Art Place and other venues in Baltimore. I also run weekly drawing workshops in my studio space at AHI.
