

Sally Dalzell

Summary of Skills and Experience:

- Started My ENJOY Project. I came across giftcard envelopes at a sale of coffeeshop that was going out of business. I thought there must be a great use for them. I came home and began making tiny watercolor paintings. I decided while I was am out doing my artwork I would gift them to people mine like them. People have been very touched once they realize what I have given to them. I makes me happy to see them smile.
- Creative problem solver with a focus on upcycled art projects.
- Skilled in a wide range of artistic media, including printmaking, papermaking, and faux finishes.
- Experienced art instructor for diverse populations, including individuals of all socioeconomic backgrounds and those with disabilities.
- Expertise in addressing artistic challenges, particularly related to high-end furniture restoration and faux finishes.
- Contributed to community arts programs, assisting with outreach and educational initiatives.
- Deep understanding of the Baltimore arts scene, with experience in local galleries and community events.
- Leadership experience in volunteer positions within both school and community settings.
- Instructional experience in teaching printmaking and drawing to adults with disabilities.
- Interned at Pyramid Atlantic (2003) and Lucinda Gallery (2008).
- Participated in various community art programs and exhibitions, including:
 - Artscape
 - Fells Point Fun Festival
 - Small Business Saturday at Waverly 32nd Street Farmers Market
 - MAP Out of Order Shows (2012, 2014)
 - Eyes Open Community Mental Health Art Shows at Arundel Lodge and American Visionary Art Museum (2014, 2015).

Education:

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Maryland Institute College of Art, Baltimore, MD (2003)